ITINERARY

DAY
1

Individual arrival in Bergen

Welcome to Bergen, there is plenty to see: Bryggen with its wooden buildings, the Hanseatic museum, Bergenhus, one of Norway's best-preserved fortresses or Håkons Hall, a royal residence from the Middle Ages. Explore Norway's second largest city on your own or book a 2 hours guided tour.

2

Bergen - Balestrand (boat), hiking tour in Balestrand

By express boat you reach the Western islands and Sognefjorden. Around lunch time you arrive in Balestrand, imbedded in impressive fjord landscape. Take a walk along King Bele's Road to see all the lovely summer residences of artists and wealthy house owners. Many of the houses in this so-called dragon style are well preserved, and spreading an unique flair. Your hotel in Balestrand overlooks the Sognefjord and has been built in Swiss style, another style which is very popular for this area.

 1 hour  4 km  50 m  50 m

3

Balestrand - Raudmelen - Balestrand

After breakfast you follow the well signposted route to Raudmelen. After a steep route up you will have magnificent views over the area. We recommend to pause at Orrabenken, before you continue to Buråsi, again with fantastic views over the fjord, green areas and rocky mountains. Along the ridge you reach the highest point of today's tour Raudmelen. Optional the route can also be shortened several times.

 6 hours  8 km  980 m  980 m

4

Balestrand - Åroy (transfer), Åroy - Solvorn

In the morning transfer from Balestrand to Åroy. From the end of Barsnesfjorden you pass the mighty Åroy River and start the hike at the other side of the bridge. You follow the same road that the King Holy Olav took in 1023 with his men. The path takes you to Hafslo Lake and continues along down to picturesque Solvorn. An idyllic small village with white wooden houses, apple trees, galleries and good atmosphere. Solvorn used to be an important harbour, today the village is a very popular summer holiday destination.

5

Mountain Molden

A short bus ride brings you to Molden, from where you hike through the forest and up to Svarthiller. The efforts of managing the steep route will be rewarded with amazing views. You continue to the top of Mount Molden, 1 116 m asl. Enjoy the breathtaking panorama over Lusterfjorden, New and Høyheimsvik. Its called the finest viewpoint of all along Sognefjorden. Be sure to have your camera ready! Afterwards you continue to Sogndal to have a relaxed last evening.

 6-7 hours  10 km  1120 m  1120 m

6

Solvorn - Jostedal (bus), hiking tour up to the glacier, Jostedal - Sogndal (bus)

Hop on the bus to through the wild and narrow valley up to Jostedal. A hike on the glacier itself with ice grips must be ordered in advance. The authorised National Park Centre for Breheimen and Jostedalsbreen National Parks (with cafeteria, souvenir shop, museum and booking centre for kayaking and rafting) can be visited before or after you hike up to the glacier.

 3-4 hours  5 km  50 m  50 m

7

Individual departure or extra nights

After breakfast your hiking holiday ends. By express boat (departure close to your hotel) back to Bergen, or by bus to Bergen or Oslo. We are happy to extend your stay with extra nights.
