

GOTLAND MULTI-ACTIVITY HOLIDAY

Gotland by bike, by foot, in a kajak and on a SUP.

Explore Gotland, the “Pearl of the Baltic Sea” and Sweden’s biggest island by bike, while hiking, in a kayak and on the Stand Up-Paddle. The climate is mild, beaches are wide and the landscape is breathtaking - limestone rauks, cozy cafés and historic places of interest will thrill you. Gotland is also well-known for its great Nordic cuisine. Välkommen till Gotland, bikers paradise and food heaven!

ITINERARY

DAY
1

Individual arrival to Visby

UNESCO world cultural heritage Visby welcomes you with many places of interest as well as an impressive city wall.

---

2

Bike tour to the Lummelunda grotto | ca. 45 km

Today you get to know the island from its inside! The 400 million years old Lummelunda cave can be visited during a guided tour (not included). Next to the grotto there is a nice café and also a restaurant, perfect for a lunch break. If you want, you can continue cycling to the "Jungfrun", with 27 m the highest limestone column in Gotland. Afterwards you return to Visby. In the evening there is time to explore Visby further.

3

Kajaktour in Slite | ca. 4 h

After breakfast take the public bus to Slite, the village is widely known as a mecca for kayak fans. The islands in the archipelago can be wonderfully discovered by paddling, even for beginners. Paddle for example around the island of Enholmen with its fortress, or around one of the other nearby archipelago islands. Those who prefer to paddle on the lake rather than in the sea can explore the nearby lake Bogevis. Afterwards you go by public bus back to Visby.

4

Stand Up-Paddling in Tofta, Tofta - Klintehamn by public bus | ca. 1 h

After breakfast, the public bus will take you to Tofta. Tofta Strand is said to have the best sandy beach on western Gotland, so what could be better than exploring Gotland's west coast by water? Get on the board and into the waves, unforgettable moments included! There is also time for the beach or the beach club. Afterwards you continue by public bus to Klintehamn.

5

Hiking on island Stora Karlsö

The boat M/S Stora Karlsö takes you to the 2.5 km<sup>2</sup> limestone island of the same name (duration ca. 30 minutes). The island is home to one of the oldest nature reserves in the world and is known for its diverse bird life. In the island museum you will learn more about the flora, fauna, geology and cultural history of the island. Afterwards you can strengthen yourself in the island restaurant before heading back to Visby in the afternoon.
